

Short Bio of Charles Edward Johnson

Pastor CeJay: From Broken Pieces to a Life of Purpose

From living in churches, hotels, and back offices to keep a vision alive, to now standing as a Hall of Famer—Pastor CeJay’s story is one of resilience, redemption, and God’s undeniable grace.

Today, Pastor CeJay is a nationally recognized force in ministry, media, and the marketplace. He is the Founding Pastor of Faith City Church, Director of KOKA Radio – The Heart of Gospel, and National President of the National Association of Gospel Radio, representing stations in 42 cities nationwide.

Affectionately known as the Ark-La-Tex Ambassador of Gospel Music, he is the only leader of his generation in the region to win a Stellar Award, while bringing nearly 200 national gospel artists to the community. His impact includes 25 Billboard Gospel Airplay Awards, 5 Stellar Award nominations, a Stellar Award win, 43 community & industry honors, and inductions into both the Byrd High School and Gospel Music Halls of Fame.

As a bold entrepreneur, Pastor CeJay leads CeJay Enterprises of Louisiana, creating dozens of jobs and serving thousands of customers. Through his church and nonprofit, he has touched countless lives with mentorship, scholarships, and outreach.

Pastor CeJay’s life is living proof that what the enemy meant for evil, God can use for good—building not just a career, but a legacy of faith, impact, and transformation.